

Use the library guide and the instruction you received from Anthony Viola at the Healey Library's computer center, to help you find an additional scholarly source from different disciplines that you can utilize in your happiness essay.

Once you've found at least ONE source, read it carefully and take notes as you would a reading assigned to you for homework. Then, fill out the chart below.

Quotation that complicates, refutes, or forwards your main claim (Remember the page number!)	What is this quotation about? What is it saying about happiness?	Explanation of the significance of this quotation to your paper. How does it complicate, refute, or forward your argument? How does it connect to the rest of your paper?	Based off of your explanation of the quote, what is a new sub-topic of your paper? In other words, what will this paragraph be about? Put your answer into 2-3 sentences (i.e. topic sentence and development of sub-topic)
